

THE PIANO INTENTION AUDIT™

From the class: Why Most Children Quit Piano

A Clarity Exercise for Parents

Piano lessons are not only about playing songs.
They are about structured skill development.
Before continuing, pause and answer honestly.

Intention

Why did I enroll my child in piano?

Discipline

Brain development

Confidence

Creative expression

Resume building

My own unfinished dream

Other: _____

If my child quits in two years and remembers very little,
would I feel satisfied with the investment?

Yes

No

Unsure

The Piano Intention Audit™

Current Structure

Do we currently have a consistent daily structure?

Yes

Sometimes

No

When resistance appears, I usually:

Push harder

Stop practice

Negotiate

Stay structured

Long-Term Thinking

Do I see piano primarily as:

Song performance

Skill training

Character training

If we treated piano like brushing teeth —

small, daily, predictable —

what would change in our home?
